

Western Sycamore lace bug (Corythucha confraterna)

- ❑ Native of Arizona, California and Mexico.
- ❑ Host: Sycamore (Platanus sp.).
- ❑ Field ID: Small bug with pale characteristic lace-like pattern and four prominent dark spots on dorsal surface. Adult and larva on underside of leaves where feeding results in shiny dark spots of excrement. Commonest in late summer.

excrement

